

FIGURE 6.10. The ridge regression and lasso coefficient estimates for a simple setting with $n = p$ and \mathbf{X} a diagonal matrix with 1's on the diagonal. Left: The ridge regression coefficient estimates are shrunk proportionally towards zero, relative to the least squares estimates. Right: The lasso coefficient estimates are soft-thresholded towards zero.